Dinner Presentation

Following the Dinner, we had weather for dessert. Roger Hill of Weathering Heights gave a weather presentation with a focus on jet streams and average temperature deviations over the last 2000 years, Roger shared some magnificent pictures of devastation in other countries.

The 'take home' concept was: the jet stream is becoming more extreme in north-south curvatures and this causes increased unusual weather conditions on one side or the other of the stream. Additionally, with jet streams that span the equator to northern Canada, there is less movement, therefore, increased occurrence of stagnant systems dropping unusual, "unprecedented" weather over an area.

It would appear that this pattern can be expected to continue, becoming “the new normal.”

The presentation concluded at 7:30pm,
